Tom Ridge PA 주지사로부터

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

THE GOVERNOR

TO: OH YOUNG LEE

It gives me great pleasure to join with family, friends, and colleagues in congratulating you on your installation as the 19th President of the Federation of Korean Associations.

Our great nation is filled with wonderful diversity and it is essential that we continue to promote these time-honored traditions, cultures and heritage of our fellow citizens. As a dedicated organization, the Federation of Korean Associations proudly represents the Korean communities of the United States. As Governor, I am always pleased to take time to thank those who work to promote diversity, cultural heritage, community involvement and humanitarian services throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States of America.

As the 19th President, your attention and unwavering devotion to the needs and best interests of our nation's Korean community aligns you with those who exemplify the founding principles of this great nation. Adequately serving the needs of our nation's Korean communities relies upon the practical knowledge and personal integrity of those committed to the highest measures of citizenship. As a highly respected and admired professional, and a dedicated advocate for the health and vitality of the Korean community, you have consistently striven for and achieved the highest levels of professional and civic distinction.

On behalf of all Pennsylvanians, I would like to take this opportunity to personally commend you on your years of faithful and honorable service to the Commonwealth and the nation. Congratulations on your new position and best wishes for continued success in your admirable efforts.

Korean Association Presidents
The Federation of Korean Associations of U.S.A.

Dear Friends:

I would like to welcome you all as you come together for the 2001 annual meeting of the Federation of Korean Associations of U.S.A. It is truly a privilege to have so many leaders of the Korean community choose Philadelphia for this year's meeting.

I would like to commend this organization for all of its hard work and efforts on behalf of the Korean community and beyond. I would also like to extend my congratulations to Mr. Kil Nam Kim for his two years of dedicated service to this national organization as well as to Mr. Oh Young Lee for his inauguration as the new President of this Federation. I wish Mr. Lee and the rest of this organization continued success in the future.

Again, I would like to welcome the Federation of Korean Associations of U.S.A. to Philadelphia and wish everyone my best in all future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Arlen Specter
